

SWINEMOOR PRIMARY SCHOOL

Friday, 21st April 2023

Dear Parents and Carers

It has been a pleasure to welcome the children back following the Easter break. They all look very smart in their uniforms and black shoes. Many pupils have been sharing their Learning Beyond the Classroom work with me, and many more have been doing lots of reading over the holidays. Thank you very much for all your hard work at home with your children.

Unfortunately, we have been informed that there will be more teacher strikes on Thursday 27th April and on Tuesday 2nd May. We will do our best to keep as much of the school open as possible on those days. There is a possibility that some Google Classroom work may be offered to some children who must remain at home. I will let you know on Monday how the school will be affected. I do apologise for the disruption that this will no doubt cause you.

This half term will be a very busy one. There are two Bank Holidays – the first is on Monday 1st May and the second is on Monday 8th May. The second Bank Holiday is to celebrate the King's Coronation. In school, we shall celebrate this on Friday 5th May with a special assembly and with different activities to be enjoyed across the school.

Our Senior and Chamber Choirs will be performing their annual Songs From The Shows Concert on Wednesday 17th May at 6.30pm. This will be a short concert, lasting around twenty minutes. We very much hope that family members of choir members will come along and enjoy the children's fabulous singing. Tickets will come home with choir members in a couple of weeks' time.

As promised above, I shall write to you again on Monday 24th April to give you information about the upcoming strikes. Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Yours sincerely

Mr. L. A. Myers
