

SWINEMOOR PRIMARY SCHOOL

Friday, 8th March 2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been lovely to celebrate World Book Day with the children today. Thank you for supporting this by sending them in such fabulous costumes! The pupils have enjoyed a variety of activities connected to reading throughout the day. It was great to see the younger children reading with the older ones and sharing their favourite stories with one another. The teachers have asked me to thank you, too, for all of the hard work that you put into reading at home with your children. It really does make a huge difference to their progress.

As always, I would like to let you know how much we appreciate your efforts in getting the children to school regularly and on time, looking smart in their uniforms and black shoes. Thank you for all the care that you take with this.

We have had a huge number of Graduates and Masters this week – well done to them all! I am so impressed by all of the knowledge that they are absorbing. Congratulations, too, to all of our Story Competition winners. The judges found it extremely difficult to choose winners, as all of the stories were of such a high standard. Every child's story will be published in our next version of Swinemoor Stories, and all of the pupils will receive a copy of this book when it returns from the printing shop.

Staff are looking forward to seeing you all next week, to share reports of your children's progress. I know that you will enjoy looking through their Portfolios and that you will admire their high quality hard work.

Yours sincerely

Mr. L. A. Myers
